Electro Bulletin Boards

Say goodbye to push pins, magnets and tape.

Powered by Justick Electro Surface Technology - simply place your items on the surface and they just stick.

 Justick

Say hello to the most advanced display boards.

Simply place your materials on the surface and they just stick! Choose from modern aluminum frames or frameless options to display anything from photos, memories, reminders, illustrations, training material, etc., to keep you organized. Finally a solution that lets you stand out from the rest and display what is uniquely important. Install 4 AA batteries into your board and watch the patented Justick Electro Surface Technology transform the surface from zero adhesion into a powerful force field.

No push pins,
magnets or tape
required!
