

Display your brand with unique technology.

Your company has worked hard to build its business and gain market and customer awareness. From your lobby to an industry trade show, we have a series of solutions to engage your customers and create a dynamic brand experience. No push pins, magnets or tape required - simply place your documents on the surface and they just stick! Install 4 AA batteries into your board and watch the patented Justick Electro Surface Technology transform the surface from zero adhesion into a powerful force field.

Write. Display. Interact!
